Foreword

Buckeye Union High School 1966-67 as seen thru the eyes of the artists . . . Thru the ages man has constantly strived to express his thoughts and images in some form of art. Without art, man would face a mental stagnation of overpowering proportions. Today we are surrounded by art — it affects our buildings, our homes, our dress, our everyday life . . . let's take a look as we view the 1966-67 school year thru the eyes of the artists . . .

MR. JOHN GLUR

"Man should not paint or carve anything except what he can see around him, so that God's majesty may not be corrupted by fantasies" wrote John Calvin. So it was that the Dutch painters turned to the objects of the world around them. Portraits of individuals and of assembled guild members were very popular and Rembrandt became the greatest portrait artist of the Baroque North. His faces do not seem complacent; they are men troubled and saddened by experience . . . so are the faces of our school board members today, for on their shoulders rest the heavy burden of the education of the young people of the community.

PATRONS OF THE ARTS . . .

In 1515 Francis I came to the throne of unified France. Under him the fortified medieval castles were expanded into great chateaux, and new ones were built for the multiplying members of the court. Leonardo da Vinci worked for him, designing architecture, fountains, costumes, and other objects. In comparison, since Mr. McNabb came to the Buckeye Union High School District our school has also expanded. The school has been almost completely remodeled. The C building, Snack Bar, Hawks Haven, the Educational Materials Center have been built. Also, land has been acquired for further expansion in order to provide a modern school for the community. New courses have been added, and like Francis I who was a cultivator of the arts, has been quite interested in the art program of our school.

Superintendent Chester D. McNabb

*Leonardo Da Vinci's
Mona Lisa
and Buckeye Union
High School's Irene Makin*

A portrait may gain attention by being called a "masterpiece", by being stolen and held for resale or by having a moustache painted on it. All of this has happened to the Mona Lisa, and much more. The figure is evidence of Leonardo da Vinci's study of anatomy, psychology, weight and balance of forms and optics. Mrs. Makin, on the other hand has not gone thru romantic and adventurous life of the Mona Lisa, such as being stolen or re-sold but we do recognize the fact that she is a study of dependability, conscientiousness, understanding, etc.; and though she does not possess the mysterious and enchanting smile of the Mona Lisa we can and do appreciate Mrs. Makin's smile more readily.

Mr. Everett Myers Principal

Although we do not see the face of "That Gentleman," the face is as surely felt as the leather of the shoes, the scaling paint of the chair, or the metallic gleam of the scissors. The reality of the mood takes precedent over the usual domination of the painting by the portrayal of a face. With Mr. Myers we have seen the face and perhaps in some cases have felt the leather of the shoes! Seriously, we believe that in the year Mr. Myers has been here we have felt his understanding personality and his determination to let us know that the welfare of the students is his main objective. Andrew Wyeth, the artist of "That Gentleman" considers that comparisons and contrasts in textures give the illusion of light while Mr. Myers believes that the light of education can only be acquired thru hard work and studious effort.

The Counselors

YOUNG BEGGAR by Murillo

We see the issues of life quite simply, even though in themselves they are not simple. No doubt, at one time, the portrayal of "Low" life, such as this Murillo, gave pleasure to the nobility because it also gave a sense of superiority . . . a sense of the power of wealth. Mr. Glur and Mr. Smith appreciate this painting for they thru their experience do not see life as simple. Illiteracy is a thing of the past and one of their objectives is to guide every student into the proper educational program which in the end will give pleasure to the individual and to the world.

MARY JANE HARDESTY

TWO YOUNG GIRLS by Egon Schiele

These two children are among the calmer presentations which Egon Schiele produced during his brief life. There is a sureness in the line although the two little girls sit nervously together . . . almost as if they were afraid the space outside were not made to move in. There is a need for distortion: it is as if the distortion were arising from a wordless inner experience. Speaking of experience the two secretaries Mrs. Hardesty and Mrs. Turner are two busy people in the school. Everyday the office is running over with activity and it is up to these two people to see that all runs smooth. No wonder they sit nervously together!

RULES FOR CHOOSING NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERS

- A. Scholarship Members of the Junior Class who have a 2.0 cumulative grade average for five semesters.
- B. Character Students must have good moral character as judged by the administration and teachers.
- C. Service This point for membership is interpreted to mean service to the school as performed in clubs, or teams, and in representing the school in scholarship or extra-curricular affairs.
- D. Leadership Leadership is exemplified in the proper attitude to the school and its objectives and the encouragement of other students to seek these goals. Members are expected to be working members of clubs by holding office or serving on committees.

A list of the members who are eligible through scholarship and character are rated by the teachers and sponsors of activities and the ten who rank highest are chosen for regular membership.

Provisional Members: Sophomore class members who have a cumulative grade average of 1.5 for three semesters and are qualified in the other three areas may be provisional members for one year. If more than ten are qualified, then the ten who are rated highest are chosen.

HONORED HAWKS

Seven members of BUHS's football squad received honors as a result of their outstanding performance for the 1966 season. Jim Terrells was chosen on the All State second team; first team All Conference, and chosen to play in the Arizona High School All Star Football Game in Flagstaff in August. Everett Hayden was on the All State Team, second team All Conference and also chosen to play in the All Star.

Hawk Football Varsity

Football game. Dick Villa and Bob Cuevas were picked on the All Conference Second Team, Bruce Bolen, Frank Roberts, and Rufus Bolden were chosen honorable mention on the All Conference Team.

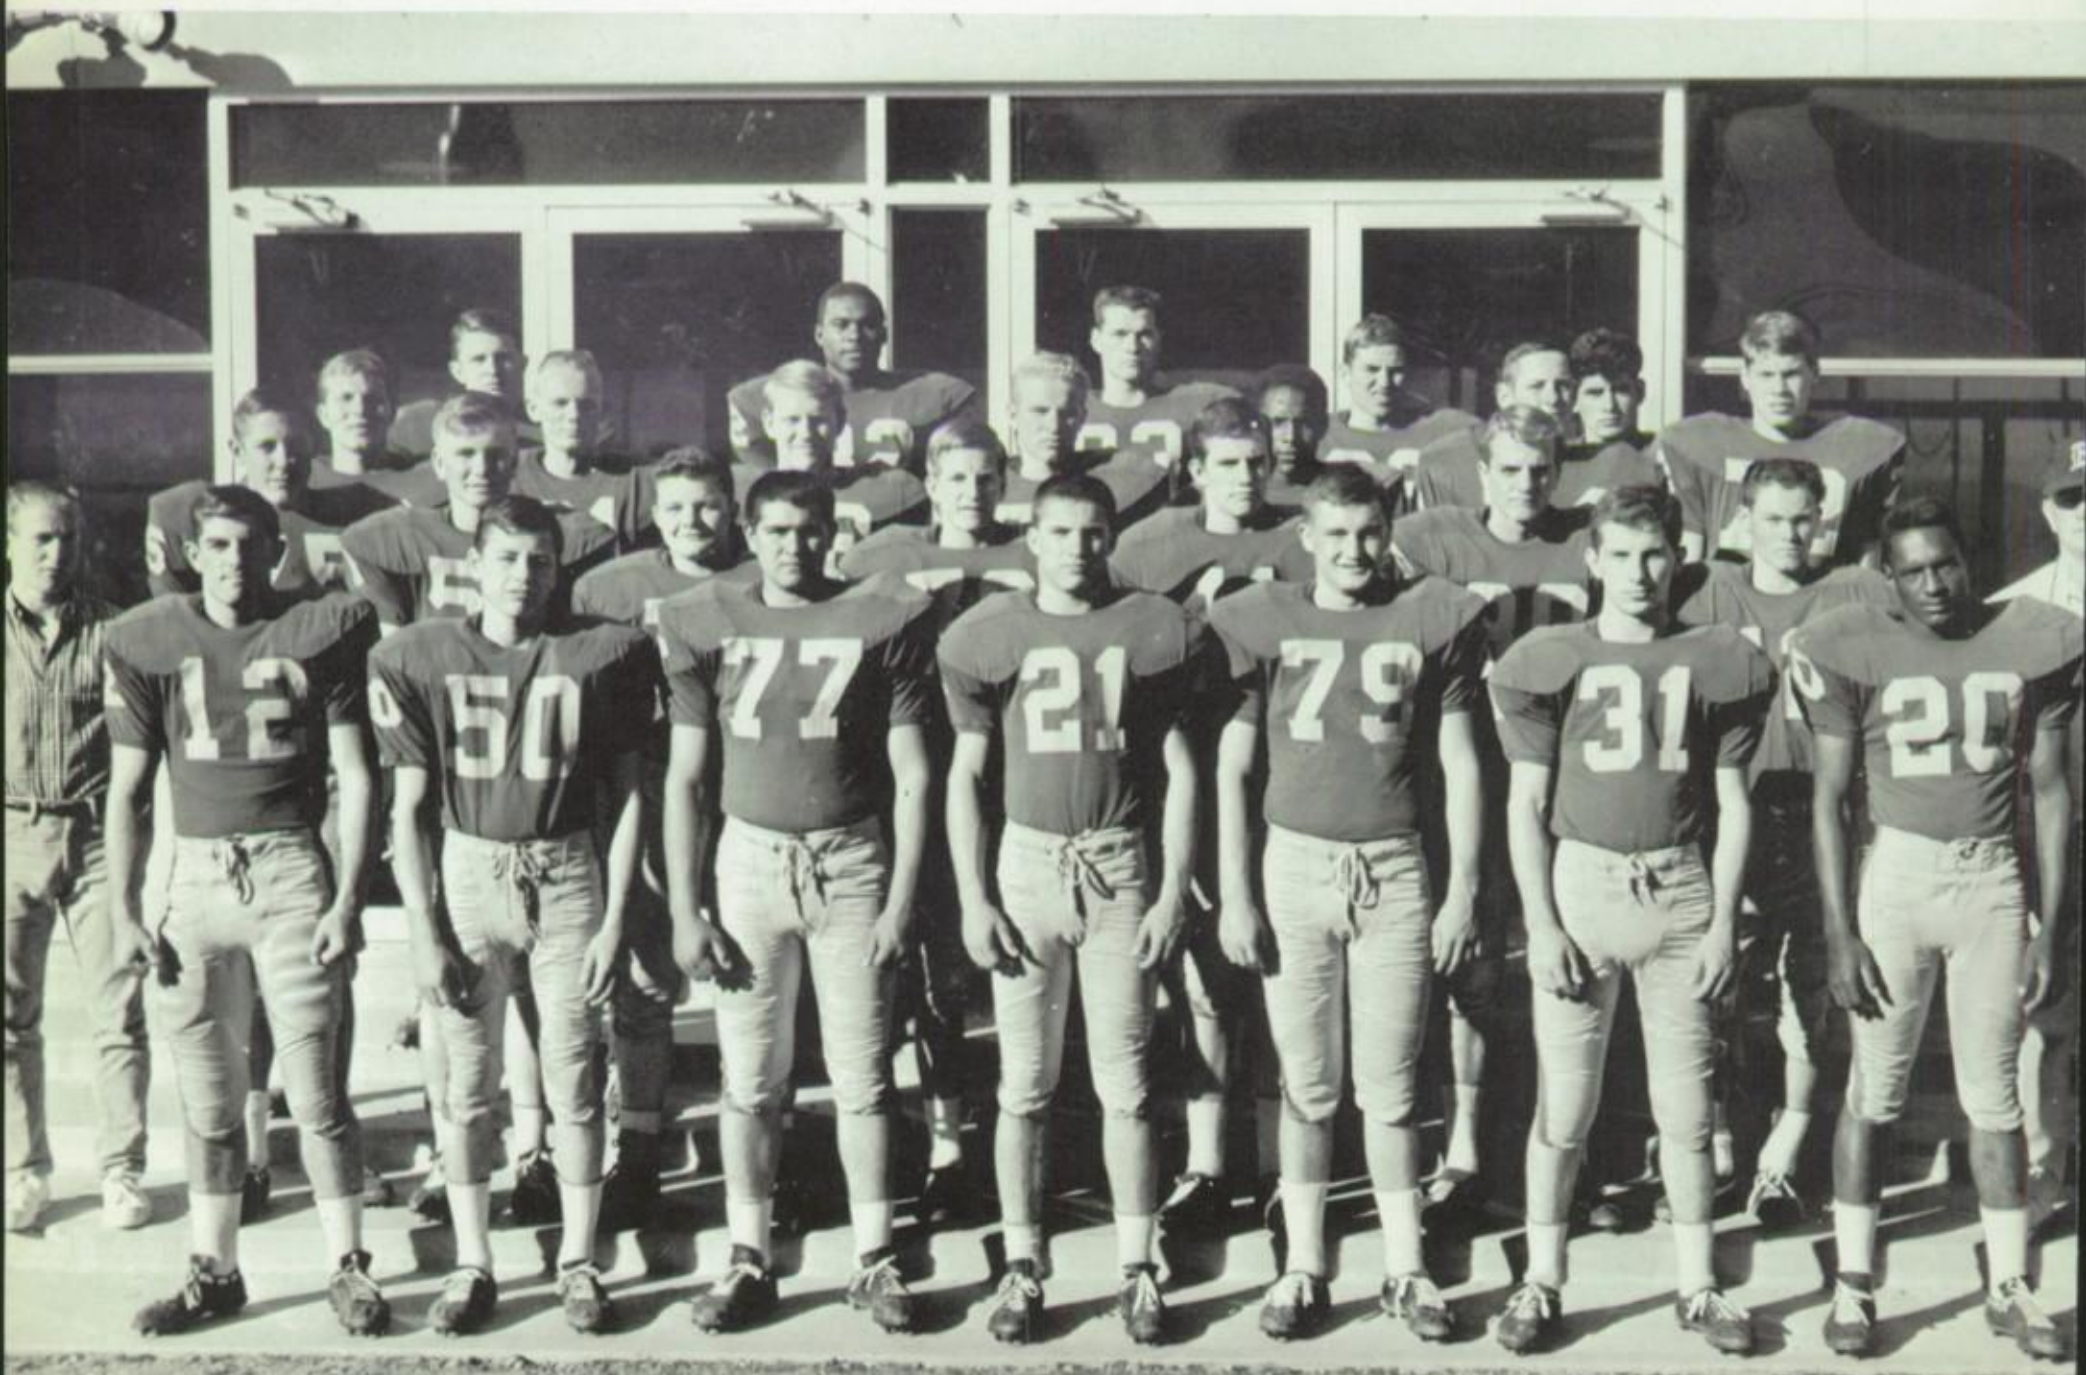

The four captains for the season were Terrells, Roberts, Hayden, and Bolen. Villa and Cuevas will return next year and were elected by their team mates to captain the 1967 Hawks. Coach Ramsey says the squad is very proud of the honors these boys have received and also feels that the football program is off the ground and expects to have a more sound, solid squad for next year, although there is still a lot of hard work ahead.

Coach Ramsey thanks all the coaches of the respective teams for their efforts as he feels this is one of the key factors in future success for football at B.U.H.S.

Hawks Basketball Varsity

The 1966-67 addition of Buckeye Union High School Basketball proved to be very successful as the Hawks rolled to a 19 win 3 loss record for the season. This fine basketball season was the 2nd best in the history of Buckeye Union High School Basketball. The Hawks lost only to Agua Fria in two close conference games and to Snowflake High School in the Inter-divisional play-offs. The failure to return to the State Tournament proved to be a big disappointment to all students and fans who followed the Hawks throughout the season as well as to the players and coaching staff. Mark Kemp broke a 21 year old scoring record for varsity competition by scoring 1246 in his three years on the varsity. The Hawks loose 5 lettermen through graduation, Mark Kemp, Jim Terrells, Bruce Bolen, Tarry Groves, and Robert Saide, however, with 5 lettermen returning and a fine group coming up from the Junior Varsity, who won 18 and lost 1, the Hawks could very well be a contender in the conference again next year.

— Coach Bob Roberts

The BUHS Junior Varsity completed a successful 16-0 Conference record under the tutelage of Coach Tomlinson. The coach was very impressed with the way the boys had progressed in over-all shooting and ball handling and this, coupled with the desire to win resulted in a terrific team effort and record.

Track Varsity

Now in the 3rd week of practice the Hawk cindermen are preparing to begin the long run for the state championship. The Hawks opener for the season was Agua Fria. Coach Glur says "The team which wants it the most will get the victory." On April 1, the team defended its own championship at the annual Buckeye Invitational. The Hawks traveled to San Manuel and Miami where they took third in the invitational the preceding year. The returning lettermen were Steve Keck in the mile and 880. Everett Hayden in the discus, 440, high jump and defended his division crown in the 120 high hurdles. Larry Gable in the 120 high and 180 lows. LeRoy Black in the mile, and defending champion in the 880. James Terrells is defending state champ in the broad jump and two time state champ in the high jump.

Varsity and J. V. Baseball

The 1967 edition of the Buckeye Baseball Team opened an ambitious twenty game schedule on March 14th with an away game against Bourgade High School of Phoenix. The score was 2-1 for Bourgade. The Hawks home opener was against defending conference champion Agua Fria on March 17. Fifteen varsity candidates were fighting for several positions left open from the 66 season which was predominantly a senior lineup. Bruce Bolen and Henry Federico were the only returning regulars. Bolen handled first base and Federico patrolled center field. Ken Bulfer and Bob Cuevas were the only other returning lettermen. Both saw considerable action during the 66 season as starting pitchers and with the help of Charles Masburn gave Buckeye a strong pitching staff. According to Coach Roger Tomlinson "The Hawks are fairly young and inexperienced with only five seniors, but with the addition of several good prospects up from the junior varsity the team was in the thick of the conference race." The Hawks received a severe blow at the beginning of the season when Gordon Bulfer broke his right ankle in practice and was lost for the full year.

Membership in GAA is open to all girls interested in athletics. The aim of the club is to promote the spirit of cooperation and the highest ideals of good sportsmanship. GAA holds play days, sponsors all intramural tournaments, and participates in sports activities among other schools. The banquet at the end of the year is the outstanding event of the year. The program includes the presentation of awards for its members and also Cheerleaders, Pom Pons, and Lettergirls. Members earn awards by compiling points through their participation in GAA activities.

Girls League Christmas Formal

The Christmas Formal was alive as a Mexican Fiesta with large bright colored flowers and serpentine dominating the atmosphere of Hawks Haven. The girls league worked hard this year in making the annual formal just a little bit different than other years. Christmas is cheerful and how else can you make it more cheerful than with the use of bright colors!

Hi There, Seniors! What's the good word?
 No, don't tell me I've already heard!
 After four long years you've finally arrived
 Your teachers and friends are glad you survived.
 Today you stand at the cross roads of life
 Ready to tackle this world full of strife.
 Help make it better, this will be swell
 And for a smooth journey travel with SHELL!
 With this we salute the famous class of '67"
 Be real good and please try to get to Heaven!
